

Mangalmay Institute of Management Technology
Greater Noida (U.P.)

	Report
Name of Activity	Guest Lecture on Role of Individual in Sustainable Development
Date	25.01.2021
Venue	MIMT Seminar Hall
Organized by	Management Department
Resource Person	Ms. Suman Lata, Govt.Inter College, Ghaziabad
Participated by	BBA Students
Activity convener	Mr. Rajnish Kumar Mishra
Content	With the initiative of IQAC, Mangalmay Institute of Management Technology organised a guest lecture on role of individual in sustainable development for the students of BBA department. The resource person commenced the session where sustainability and resources were the key concepts of discussion. The speaker stressed upon natural resources as the basic life support systems which form the basis as well as serve as drivers of growth in the economy and provided detailed information regarding current resource use patterns and alternate ways by which we can minimize exploitation of our resources. The Speaker put up a lot of experimental data and presented several points from advanced research, which kindled the interest of the participants. Finally, the Speaker concluded the presentation elaborating on the present research scenario. After the presentation, a Q&A session was conducted, where the Speaker addressed the queries of attendees.
Objective	The focus of the program was role of individuals in sustainable development, efficient resource utilization, deforestation and its effects.
Outcome of Activity	This program enabled the students to strengthen their knowledge about sustainability and resources.