Content	Effective communication is paramount to great leadership. But it's more nuanced and complicated than just learning how to give a great speech. If you want to inspire others through your words, you must learn how to not only speak effectively, but also listen effectively. Communication is a two-way street, after all. Managalmay Institute of Management Technology, Greater Noida organized an Expert Talk on Styles of Communication. The session was started with the welcome note for all the dignitaries. Kirti Rai of B.Com. 2nd year hosted the session and read the brief profile of the resource person. The students of BCA, BBA, and B.com attended the session with great enthusiasm. The session expert was Dr. Rekha Sharma, Prof. BDS Institute Meerut. The resource person started his session with the discussion about the difference between conversation and communication. She first, discussed the types of communication and its importance in professional life. She talked about four types of
