Participated By	256 Students of School of Education
Activity In-Charge	Mr. AshishSrivastava& Ms. Renu
Resource Person	Mr. Shiv Kumar & Ms. Shaifali
Content	A “Scout and Guide Camp” was organized by UHV-Cell with the initiative of School of Education from 7 March to 11 March, 2022 for training character and good citizenship. It was designed especially for the benefits of boys and girls. The camp was organized with collaboration of The Bharat Scouts and Guides in the college premises. The students were led by the Resource persons Mr. Shiv Kumar and Ms.Shaifali. The camp activities were organized as per the following schedule: Day1 (Opening Ceremony):The first day of the camp started with the opening ceremony of the camp. The ceremony started with lamp lighting by Principal, Dr. Manoj Kumar Singh, Mr. Shiv Kumar and Ms. Shefali. Principal addressed the students and officially inaugurated the camp. Mr.Shiv Kumar, District Organizing Commissioner (Bharat Scouts & Guides Organization) also gave an inspiring speech and told about the benefits of Scout and Guide camp. After the ceremony the students were introduced to the special scout and guide prayer “Dayakardan bhakti ka”. They were also taught about special clap. Day 2:The second day started with flag hoisting in the college ground by Mr. Shiv Kumar. After flag hoisting Scout and Guide prayer was done. The students were given some written file work where duties of scouts, rules ofScouting and basic principles were mentioned. Some fun activities were also organized for the students which wereentertaining as well as educating. Students were taught knot making. They were taught different knots for tyingdifferent objects and types of ropes to be used in scouts and guides. Day 3: The third day was assigned for adventurous visit to MihirBhoj Park where they were taught about group activities like first aid. They learnt to make arrows to recognize the path and had lunch there. They were taught about special welcome clap.

	Day 4: On this day students learnt about the remaining knots. They got to know about tent pitching. Students geared up for the next day cultural activities and prepared for their excellent performances. They selected the state which they had to represent on the final day. Day 5 (Closing Ceremony): On the final day of the camp all the students decorated their tents beautifully according to the state they were assigned. The special guests for this day were Ms. KomalPanwar (Deputy Collector, Gautam Buddha Nagar) and Professor Dr.DivyaNath, (Principal, KMGGPGC). Our special guests motivated the students by sharing their life experiences and also guiding them to making good choices and taking responsibilities for their actions. They went to the ground and observed each tent. Students were asked some questions related to states they were representing. They were dressed according to their respective state. Tents were judged on the basis of representation of state, dress of the students representing the state and their knowledge about the particular state. After the guests took their seats, the students performed the cultural activities they prepared the previous day. Guests were fed with the traditional foods of different states. Students were given special scarf meant for scout and guide camp. The camp was closed with the dance performances by the students.
Objectives	Scout and guide camp had the following objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Character Formation.• Formation of Sound Health Habits.• The training in the handicraft and acquisition of useful skills.• Cultivation of proper spirit of service.
Outcomes	The outcomes of the camp were as following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The camp was fun and motivational for the students.• Students learnt so many things about the camp.• They learnt so many skills to improve their lifestyle.• They performed various tasks to build these skills and perform better.
