CONSTITUTION DAY CELEBRATION

Constitution Day (Samvidhan Divas), also known as National Law Day, is celebrated in on 26th November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. On 26 November 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India adopted the Constitution of India, and it came into effect on 26 January 1950.

Today NCC Cadets prepared Nukkad Natak on human rights and they acted it in front of villagers to make him aware about constitution of India. All the cadets participated in the NUKKAD NATAK very enthusiastically and feel proud to be the part of this programme. The objective of the constitution day celebration was to make aware the cadets about our Indian constitution and they give awareness to people. This was the important learning for cadets and good experience. We have taken all safety measures and precautions of covid-19. Social distancing, Sanitization and use of mask was essential and was on priority.

Objective-26th November was marked as the Constitution Day of India by Prime Minister Narendra Modi in the year 2015 as a part of year-long celebration of the 125th birth anniversary of Dr B R Ambedkar. Constitution Day of India aims to bring awareness on the importance of the Indian Constitution and its architect, Dr B R Ambedkar.

Outcome

To create awareness about Indian Constitution among the people and make them aware about constitution day.
