Participated By	231 Students of B.A.B.Ed. 1 st Year
Activity in-Charge	Ms. Vandana
Objective of the Activity	This activity had following objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Children's Day is like dedicating a whole day of the year to the children of the nation, planning for their bright future, and providing them with a safe, healthy, and active and learning environment.</li><li>• It is celebrated across India to raise awareness about the rights, education, and welfare of children.</li><li>• On Children's Day, societies are made to focus on the problems that young India is facing now, and it also makes us realize our responsibilities towards children.</li></ul>
Content	The Children's Day is celebrated on 14th Nov every year on the occasion of the birthday of the first Prime Minister of Independent India, Pt. JawaharLal Nehru. On 14th November, 2022 (Monday), Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat (EBSB) Club, MIMT, organized Children's Day celebration. The celebration began with a welcome note by the anchor of the programme, Ms. Vandana which was followed by a speech conducted by the students. The children's day programme had a series of interesting and exciting events, all planned meticulously for a complete entertainment of students. Children's day activities included different games for students like passing the ball, musical chair etc. All students actively participated in all the games. The campus was buzzing with excitement and joy as it was a day wherein fun and frolic dominated. Then the ceremony of awarding the certificates to the students marking their achievement during the teaching learning process was conducted. The certificates were given away by Dr. Manoj Kumar Singh, Principal, MIMT. A blessings note was also given by him. The celebration came to an end with the distribution of mini chocolate cakes in the classes as a small token of love and affection by the institute.

Outcome of the Activity	Children's Day emphasized how important it is to show love and care to every child. It was celebrated with a lot of passion and zeal all over the country. On the occasion of Children's Day, both, the students and the faculty members in the auspicious presence of the Principal Sir celebrated the day with enthusiasm, pride and fervor. Students actively participated in the activities which promoted in them a healthy competition and awareness about the contemporary lifestyles, traditions, social values and duties of citizens towards the nation. The occasion also instilled in the audience the sense of promise to make our nation an even better place. This occasion was also an opportunity for the students to celebrate the birthday of Pt. J.L. Nehru, to feel the spirit of love, affection, brotherhood and citizenship and to celebrate their childhood.
